11 Years!

Porchfest began in 2007, inspired by some outdoor ukulele playing and a conversation between neighbors Gretchen Hildreth and Lesley Greene. They came up with the idea for it that day and gathered 20 bands to make it happen in September of that year. The number of bands has increased every year since then, with 180 this year.

The team has grown too. Andy Adelevitz mercifully joined the organizing team in 2013. Lesley's husband Robbert wrote software to assist in scheduling the bands in 2014. A team of Cornell students made another pass at scheduling software this year. We now get help on the day of Porchfest from several dozen volunteers.

We have received sponsorship support from Ithaca Neighborhood Housing Services since 2011, which has been extremely helpful, as Lesley and Gretchen were paying out of pocket for most of the expenses before that. We receive generous donations from the community as well that we collect at Thompson Park during Porchfest and online through our website, www.porchfest.org. And let's not forget to mention all the bands who play each year for their neighbors and visitors. That's what it's really all about!

Porchfest has grown not just in Ithaca but around the continent. There are 100 Porchfests that we know of in the U.S. and Canada, and we keep hearing about new ones. Thanks to everyone who makes it happen.

Lesley, Gretchen, and Andy

Street Painting Project

In 2016, we celebrated our milestone 10th year with an exciting project - we painted the intersection of Auburn, Lewis and Adams streets with a cool Porchfest mural by Nina Widger. See the cover of this brochure for her design.

It was a wonderful success! Hundreds of people helped with the painting, and the result was a beautiful addition to the neighborhood. So, we set out to do another one this year.

This year's artist is Ana Goldsmith, a Fall Creek resident who has lived in Ithaca for seventeen years and teaches art in the Ithaca City School District. We love her bold design! There is a lot of excitement about the painting, but we ran into a hurdle at the last minute and are now in search of a different intersection. If you and your neighbors live on a corner in search of art, contact us! We will find another date for the painting party.

In the meantime, we will take the opportunity to repaint last year's mural at Auburn and Lewis Streets. Come join us for some painting during Porchfest!
