The Inside Scoop

When and why did Porchfest begin? By total serendipity! The first Porchfest was in 2007, inspired by some outdoor ukulele playing and a conversation between neighbors Gretchen Hildreth and Lesley Greene.

How many bands play each year? It's amazing how many Ithacans are musicians! Porchfest has grown from 20 musical acts in 2007 to about 150 this year.

How are bands chosen to play? Just by signing up! We don't curate the lineup or match musicians to porches—anyone who signs up before the deadline and has a porch to play on is IN. We love how it showcases the full creative depth of our community.

Who organizes Porchfest? A small but mighty group of volunteers! For the first six years, it was just Gretchen and Lesley. Andy Adelewitz stepped in just in the nick of time in 2013. Katie Foley joined the team in 2018 as food truck organizer (we love food!). Gretchen stepped away in 2019, but this year we expanded the team. Our volunteer coordinators are Kerry Anne Buckman and Samantha Weeks, the barricades crew is Dave Davies and Chris Bell, our clean team is Jon Miller and Rebecca Nelson, and Kathy Raine helps all over the place. Robbert van Renesse built the software that we use to schedule the bands, and Micah Beem-Miller is assisting on the food truck detail. Our inaugural Makers' Market was conceived and organized by Nicole Basta and Yen Ospina. What a great team!

What does it cost? Not much at all, cuz we keep it simple! It takes a few thousand dollars to cover Porchfest expenses, including permit fees, insurance, port-a-john rentals, and paying our visual artist and crossing guards. The organizers aren't paid to put this together, and the performers play for free. Income comes from a portion of t-shirt sales, food vendor fees, and donations from people around the neighborhood (have you donated yet?). We also received a Community Celebrations grant from Tompkins County. We could use a sponsor for next year! Contact us if that might be you: info@porchfest.org.

Where else are there Porchfests? Porchfest started in Ithaca, but the idea has spread far and wide. There are 178 Porchfests that we know of in the U.S. and Canada, plus one in Australia!

What else? Porchfest wouldn't be possible without dozens of volunteers staffing the barricades and helping direct traffic. And it really wouldn't be possible without all the great people who play each year for their neighbors!

Thank you!

Thank you to our barricade volunteers:

Erica Aduasare, Mavis Amegah-Dorr, Veda Balte, Nadia Barakatain, Sarah Benkoussa, Shelley Blackler, Rosie Bostian, Martin Brice, Yusuf Broaster, Vivian Bui, Kari Burke, Caleb Cackowski, Sean Chang, Maeve Coughlin, Molly Crocker, Brendan Cullen, Anne Culp, Kaitlin Deshotel, Calista Elizondo, Gracie Ferguson, Lyra Fontanilla, David Gouldthorpe, Caroline Grass, Lauren Greenhill, Beyanca Guilme, Larry Hirschberger, Anya Hoaglund, Caleb Humphreys, Robin Iller, Hee Jin Cho, Shana King, Sofie Kravitz, Catherine Lawrence, Mattie Lee, QianQian Lin, Katie Marks, Saoirse McClory, Siobhan McClory, Diya Mehta, Mike Napierski, Josh Nixon, Brendan Noone, Erich Ostendarp, Ella Paolucci, Nate Park, Carissa "Collins" Parlade, Chloe Penot, Laura Peters, Victoria Peterson, Veronica Pillar, Nathaniel Posner, Baneet Pukhrambam, Guillaume Reboul, Savannah Relos, Jack Reppert, Lily Rivo, Margaret Schluth, Madison Schriver, Joan Schumacher, Patrick Sewell, Madonna Stallmann, Billy Streleckis, Ajrun Tafannum, Juice Thomasson, Jeannine Trotter, Leslie Trotter, Kristen Yezzi

Additional thanks for making Porchfest possible:

Robbert van Renesse, Scott Rougeau, June Overslaugh, Paul Coen, Doug Levine, the Adelewitz and Greene-van Renesse families, Ithaca Special Events Committee, Downtown Ithaca Alliance, and all the musicians and performers who give their time and talent to this community celebration!
